

September 15, 2011

Dayton Police Department Announces Promotions

On September 14, 2011, the Dayton Police Department held a promotion ceremony where five individuals were promoted. Sergeant's Kenneth Beall and Eric Henderson were promoted from the rank of Sergeant to Lieutenant. Officer's Jared King, Aaron Fraley, and Jeffrey Thomas were promoted from the rank of Officer to Sergeant.

"Know that you are assuming a position of greater responsibility within the Dayton Police Department, an organization with a long and honorable history of community service and also known for innovation and excellence in policing. Over the past two years, the Dayton Police Department has received statewide, national and international recognition for excellence in problem-oriented and community oriented policing. So the bar is set high for each of you to continue and improve our legacy of exemplary public service. I know you welcome the challenge and will be successful in your future endeavors!"

Chief Richard S. Biehl
Dayton Police Department
Director and Chief of Police

Sergeant Kenneth G. Beall, after 28 years of dedicated service, was promoted from Sergeant to Lieutenant. He will be assigned to West Patrol Operations Division, as a Watch Commander.

Sergeant Eric A. Henderson, after 12 years of dedicated service, was promoted from Sergeant to Lieutenant. He will be assigned to the Office of the Chief of Police, Office of Homeland Security.

Officer Jared B. King, after 15 years of dedicated service, was promoted from Officer to Sergeant. He will be assigned to East Patrol Operations Division, as a Shift Supervisor.

Officer Aaron M. Fraley, after 9 years of dedicated service, was promoted from Officer to Sergeant. He will be assigned to Central Patrol Operations Division, as a Shift Supervisor.

Officer Jeffrey K. Thomas, after 9 years of dedicated service, was promoted from Officer to Sergeant. He will be assigned to West Patrol Operations Division, as a Shift Supervisor.